

FRIEND OF LABOUR

Chak Kong Soon

Director, Board of Directors
NTUC's e2i (Employment and Employability Institute)

Nominated by the Singapore Labour Foundation.

Chak Kong Soon has served on the NTUC's e2i's (Employment and Employability Institute) Board of Directors since 2016. He has played key roles in NTUC's e2i's transformation, and the expansion of programme offerings and services to benefit different workforce segments.

He was appointed member of NTUC's e2i's Nominating Committee in 2020, helping to review the Board's appointments and assess the contributions of each director to the board.

Brother Kong Soon's invaluable insights and connections have facilitated strategic contributions between NTUC's e2i, Tech Talent Assembly, and leading technology companies, resulting in mutually beneficial partnerships to support our workforce.

He played a pivotal role in ensuring the industry remains vibrant and adaptable to the ever-evolving technology landscape by bridging the gap between organisations and tech talents.

Brother Kong Soon has been a great supporter and a friend of the Labour Movement through fostering symbiotic relationships between industry stakeholders and tech talents.

He received the Plaque of Commendation award in 2022
