

ntuc

MAY DAY

AWARDS

2 0 2 5

FRIEND OF LABOUR

Roy Chiang

Chairman

Employment and Employability Institute Pte Ltd

Nominated by the Singapore Labour Foundation

Since 2020, Roy Chiang has served with distinction as the Chairman of the Board of Directors at the Employment and Employability Institute (e2i). In this role, he has been instrumental in shaping e2i's strategic direction and providing valuable guidance to navigate the challenges of an ever-changing employment landscape, particularly during unexpected economic situations like the COVID-19 pandemic.

With his extensive corporate experience, he shares valuable insights with e2i's management, broadening their perspectives and supporting governance initiatives. Under his leadership, e2i has successfully placed approximately 100,000 workers into better jobs, enhancing their quality of life.

As a key member of e2i's Nominating Committee, he offers insights on board composition and reviews appointments. His contributions to e2i and the wider Labour Movement network have significantly strengthened tripartism in Singapore.

Brother Roy has consistently supported and advocated for enterprise transformation and job redesign, benefiting workers' wages, welfare, and career prospects.