Taxi Driver
ComfortDelGro Taxi

Nominated by the National Taxi Association

Edward Chee Chan Boon is a dedicated and passionate advocate for his fellow drivers, consistently raising their concerns to ensure their voices are heard. He actively highlights key issues affecting drivers' income, such as booking fees and default payments by passengers, demonstrating his commitment to their financial well-being.

Beyond wages, Brother Edward plays an integral role in supporting members' welfare. Whenever financial assistance programmes are introduced, he proactively participates in helpdesk sessions to assist members with their applications. Always the first point of contact for those in need of advice, he provides unwavering support and guidance to fellow drivers. Additionally, he volunteers his time at branch and National Taxi Association (NTA) events, selflessly assisting with logistics and transportation.

A strong link between his zone members and the branch, Brother Edward ensures that drivers' concerns are surfaced to the branch executive committee for discussion and resolution. Deeply connected to the ground, he takes the extra effort to build personal relationships with his fellow drivers, reinforcing his reputation as a trusted and reliable leader.
