CONSTITUTION OF THE UNION OF POWER AND GAS EMPLOYEES

ARTICLE 1 Name and Registered Office

The name of this trade union shall be “Union of Power and Gas Employees” or “UPAGE” (hereinafter called “the Union”) and its registered office shall be at 1A Woodleigh Park, #03-00 Singapore Power Training Institute, Singapore 357874, or such other place as the Executive Council may from time to time decide upon.

ARTICLE 2 Objects

- (a) The principal object of the Union shall be to regulate relations between members and their employers for the following purposes:-
 - (i) to promote good industrial relations between members and their employers;
 - (ii) to promote the working conditions of members and enhance their economic and social status;
 - (iii) to achieve the raising of productivity for the benefit of members, their employers and the economy of Singapore.

- (b) The other objects of the Union shall be:-
 - (i) to secure the complete representation and effective organization of all persons who are eligible to be members of the Union;
 - (ii) to establish and operate such scheme or fund to provide members with such assistance and such other benefits as the Executive Council may deem necessary and expedient.
 - (iii) to affiliate with and/or to further the work or objectives of the National Trades Union Congress and the Singapore Labour Foundation and any other national or international organization having for its objectives the promotion of the interests of labour, trade unions, and trade unionists and/or the welfare of workers, subject to the statutory restrictions on the use of trade union funds;
 - (iv) to provide legal advice and assistance to members where necessary and desirable in relation to their employment;
 - (v) to operate or participate in such co-operative or other scheme or enterprise as the Executive Council may deem necessary and expedient for the benefit of members, subject to the statutory restrictions on investment of union funds;
 - (vi) to provide and maintain such forms of media and such other facilities as the Executive Council may deem desirable for the legitimate expression of the policies and views of the Union and its membership or the promotion or interchange of opinions and ideas amongst the members;

- (vii) to promote the welfare and well-being, either collectively or individually of members, their dependents and/or such other persons in the community as the Executive Council deems in its absolute discretion to need charitable assistance in any manner; and
- (viii) generally, to promote the material, educational, social, recreational, cultural, welfare and interest of the members and to do all that is necessary, incidental or conducive to the attainment of any of these objects as the Executive Council may from time to time deem expedient.

ARTICLE 3 Membership and Associateship

- (a) The membership of this Union shall consist of Ordinary Members, Founder Members, Cadre Members, Ordinary (General) Members and Honorary Members.
 - (i) The Ordinary Membership of this Union is open to all persons who are at least sixteen years old, and who are employed in any capacity in the energy, power, gas and utilities industry including water but excluding those employed by the Public Utilities Board and persons employed in the services related to the said industry, and who are not Ordinary Members of any other registered trade union of employees in Singapore.
 - (ii) The Founder Members of this Union shall be confined to such persons as are certified by the Secretary General of the National Trades Union Congress to have actively assisted on the founding of this Union irrespective of whether they are eligible for the Ordinary Membership of this Union.
 - (iii) The Cadre Members of this Union may be appointed by the Executive Council from among Ordinary Members and other persons, provided that every such appointee is certified by the Secretary General of NTUC in his absolute discretion to be a fit and proper person to assist in the running of this Union, irrespective of whether or not such appointee is eligible to be an Ordinary Member of this Union. The total number of Ordinary Members and Cadre Members shall not exceed one-third of the total number of elected delegates at the Delegates Conference.
 - (iv) The Ordinary (General) Membership of this Union is open to all persons who are eligible to be Ordinary Members of the Union but who are unable to be represented by the Union vis-à-vis their employers from whatever cause, provided that they are not members of any other registered trade union of employees.
 - (v) In this Constitution, every reference to Ordinary shall include a reference to Ordinary (General) Members unless it is expressly stated otherwise or it is clearly not permitted by the context.
 - (vi) The Honorary Membership of this Union may be conferred by the Executive Council on persons who have rendered signal service to this Union or the trade union movement.

- (b) The Executive Council may at its absolute discretion admit into the associateship of this Union any persons on the following categories:-
- (i) employees of this Union who have been confirmed in service;
 - (ii) spouses and children of Ordinary Members of this Union so long as they have attained 16 years of age;
 - (iii) former Ordinary Members of this Union who have retired from the service of their employers; and
 - (iv) non-bargainable employees working in establishments whose other employees are organized and represented by this Union.

Provided always that the persons concerned are ineligible for the Ordinary Membership of this or any other union.

- (c) (i) Application for Membership or Associateship shall be made in the prescribed form and forwarded to the General Secretary who shall place it before the Executive Council for approval at its next meeting. The Executive Council may at its absolute discretion reject any application without stating the reason.
- (ii) The Executive Council may constitute such Committee as it deems fit in its absolute discretion from amongst its members for the purpose and with the power of scrutinising, approving or rejecting applications for Ordinary Member and Ordinary (General) Membership or Associateship of this Union. The Executive Council may delegate the power of scrutinising, approving or rejecting applications for Ordinary (General) Members to any authorised officer of the Union or to any department of the NTUC in accordance with Rule 7(c) of this Constitution. Every decision of such committee or authorised officer of the said Department of NTUC regarding applications for Ordinary (General) Membership shall be deemed to be a decision duly taken by the Executive Council.
- (d) Every successful application for the Ordinary Member or Associateship of this Union shall, upon tender of such payment or authorisation in writing for check-off, as the case may be, of the entrance fee, subscription fee and any other fees or levies as the Executive Council may require, be registered by the General Secretary in their respective Membership or Associateship Lists, with effect from the date of approval of application.

ARTICLE 4 Entrance Fee and Subscriptions

- (a) Subject to paragraph (e) of this Rule the entrance fee shall be paid in such manner and at such rate as the Executive Council shall decide in its absolute discretion to be payable by members upon admission or re-admission.

- (b) (i) The monthly subscription fee for Ordinary Members and Founder and Cadre Members eligible for Ordinary Membership and Ordinary (General) Members shall be such amount and at such rate as a Delegate Conference or, in special circumstances of sub-paragraph (d)(iv) hereof, the Executive Council shall decide. Founder and Cadre Members who are ineligible for Ordinary Membership shall pay a token total Membership fee of $30/- upon each admission to the membership of this Union and, upon so paying, shall not be required to pay any further fees thereafter.
 - (ii) For the purpose of paying the union's affiliation fee to the Singapore Labour Foundation (SLF), every Ordinary Member and Ordinary (General) member shall pay a yearly subscription fee of such amount as shall be determined by the Executive Council from time to time in accordance with the advice of the NTUC Central Committee.
 - (iii) Every Ordinary Member and Ordinary (General) Member shall pay a levy equivalent to one month's membership subscription fee which shall be deducted from their annual wage supplement and/or annual bonus to be paid to the NTUC which shall be utilized to provide such benefits to union members which the NTUC Central Committee deems fit.
- (c) Associates shall pay such monthly subscription and other levies as shall be determined by the Executive Council from time to time. Associates who enrolled with the NTUC Club shall also pay the current yearly NTUC Club membership fee.
- (d) (i) The Executive Council shall have the power to require the payment of a special fee, in addition to the prevailing rate of entrance fee, and to impose such other conditions it deems fit, upon any applicant for Ordinary Membership who fails to satisfy the Executive Council with his explanation for any undue delay in applying for the Ordinary Membership of this Union or by any applicant for re-admission whose membership of this Union has previously lapsed through arrears of membership fees or levies.
 - (ii) The Executive Council may waive payment or reduce the amount of entrance fee payable by any applicant for membership during any membership recruitment campaign or under any other circumstances as the Executive Council deem fit in its absolute discretion.
 - (iii) The Executive Council may in cases of national service, sickness or any other cases as the Executive Council may from time to time specify in its absolute discretion, remit, reduce or defer the membership fees payable by any member.
 - (iv) Notwithstanding any other provisions in these Rules, the Executive Council shall be empowered, only if this Union is required to give effect to a resolution of the National Trades Union Congress in accordance with the terms of affiliation of this Union to the National Trades Union Congress, to alter or revise in any manner the prevailing rates of entrance fee or subscription fee or impose or vary a special levy without convening a Delegates Conference for the purpose and such alteration, revision, imposition or variation shall be deemed to have duly approved by a Delegates Conference in accordance with these Rules and duly recorded as such.

- (v) The prevailing rates of entrance fees, subscription fee and, if any levy shall upon their due adoption by this Union, be listed in a Schedule hereto, provided that no fee or levy shall take effect before due registration with the Registrar of Trades Union.
- (e) All membership fees shall be payable or deductible on the first working day of the calendar month in which they fall due.
- (i) Any Ordinary Member whose membership fees are more than three months in arrears shall not be entitled to any benefits including the right to attend, speak or vote at any meeting of members or the General Meeting or to hold any office in the Union, irrespective of whether he has been given a written reminder of arrears by the Treasurer.
 - (ii) Any Ordinary Member who allows his membership fees to be more than six months in arrears shall be deemed to have been struck off the Membership List of the Union with effect from the last day of the sixth month.
 - (iii) Any Ordinary (General) Member or Associate who fails to pay his subscription fee within three months after the due date shall automatically cease to be a member or associate of the Union with effect from the last day of such period of three months and shall then forfeit all his interest in the Union.
- (f) A person so struck off from the membership of the Union may appeal to the Executive Council for reinstatement in the membership of the Union without any break in continuity thereof provided that a notice of appeal in writing together with a tender of payment of arrears up to the date of appeal is made within one month of being struck off and subject to such conditions as the Executive Council may impose in its absolute discretion.
- (g) (i) If the Executive Council affects a check-off arrangement with the employer and if a member fails to authorise or continue any check-off of his membership subscription or other fees for the respective period of three months or six months, he shall be deemed to be in arrears for the corresponding period of three months or six months under paragraph (e) of this Rule, notwithstanding any tender of payment of his membership fees directly to the Union.
- (ii) No appeal by member who has been struck off under sub-paragraph (i) hereof for reinstatement in the membership of the Union shall be entertained unless a fresh authorisation for check-off is submitted together with the payment of arrears up to the date of appeal, which shall have been made within one month of being struck off.

ARTICLE 5 Rights and Duties of members and Associates

- (a) (i) All Ordinary Members who are not disqualified by arrears or suspended from membership under any provision of these Rules shall have the right to attend, speak and vote at any General Meeting of members or participate in any postal ballot among members.
- (ii) Founder or Cadre Members shall rank as Ordinary Members and shall have all rights and duties as Ordinary Members; provided that Founder or Cadre Members who are eligible for Ordinary Membership shall be attached to the respective Branches to which they would have been attached as Ordinary Members, and shall be eligible to stand for election into the Executive Council only as delegates of the said Branches or otherwise.
- (iii) Associates may attend a general meeting of members if invited by the Executive Council, but shall have no voting and speaking rights. Associates shall not participate in any industrial action of this Union and shall not hold any office in this Union.
- (iv) All members who are entitled to participate in a general meeting of members or a postal ballot among members shall, unless otherwise disqualified from holding office, be eligible for nomination and election or appointment to any office in the Executive Council or any post of Internal Auditor or Trustee of this Union, subject, always to the provisions of the Trades Union Act and these Rules.
- (v) Ordinary (General) Members shall not hold any office in the Union or be represented by the Union in any matter vis-à-vis their respective employers and except further as expressly stated otherwise in these Rules.
- (vi) An Ordinary (General) Member shall be required to furnish a copy of his current pay slip or such other documentary proof of his employment status as the Executive Council or any department of the NTUC appointed in accordance with Rule 7(c) shall decide upon in its absolute discretion when applying for membership and whenever required by the Union.
- (vii) An Ordinary (General) Member who fails to comply with Rule 5(a)(vi) hereof or who has furnished any false information pertaining to his employment at the time of application or membership or at any time thereafter shall be deemed to have committed misconduct rendering him liable to expulsion from the Union in accordance with these Rules.
- (viii) An Ordinary (General) Member shall be converted to Ordinary Membership with effect from such date, as the Executive Council shall decide upon in its absolute discretion that the Ordinary (General) Members in the service of a particular employer are able to be represented by the Union vis-à-vis their employers.

- (b) Every member or Associate shall notify in writing to the General Secretary at the earliest opportunity of any change in the address, designation or such other personal particulars, as may be recorded by this Union. Every communication from this Union sent to a Member's or Associate's last recorded address and every decision by this Union taken on the basis of the member's or Associate's last recorded particulars shall be deemed to have been duly sent or properly taken, as the case may be.
- (c) It shall be the duty of each member or Associate to pay promptly and regularly all fees and levy payable by members or Associates and to obtain an official receipt for any sum of money paid to the Union other than by way of check-off.
- (d)
 - (i) A member may resign after giving in writing one month's notice of resignation and paying all fees and levy up to the effective date of his resignation except that if such fees and levy are paid by way of check-off the notice of resignation shall not be less than six months unless the Executive Council expressly decides otherwise.
 - (ii) An Associate or Ordinary (General) Member may resign after giving in writing one month's notice of resignation and paying all fees and levy up to the effective date of resignation.
- (e)
 - (i) Subject to paragraphs (ii) and (iii) hereof, a member who has been expelled or suspended from membership, dismissed or suspended from office, debarred from holding office, fined or, otherwise penalised by the Executive Council may appeal to the next Delegates Conference against the decision of the Executive Council by giving notice of appeal in writing to the General Secretary within one month therefrom.
 - (ii) A member shall not commence any proceedings in any court in respect of any decision of the Executive Council before the appeal has been made to and decided upon by a Delegates Conference.
 - (iii) A decision of the Executive Council to discipline any member shall take effect on such date as the Executive Council deems fit but without prejudice to the right of a suspended or expelled member to appeal within one month therefrom. If a Delegates Conference wholly or partly reverses the decision of the Executive Council, the member shall have his membership or membership rights restored accordingly or any payment refunded, as the case may be, to him with effect from the date of the decision of or a Delegates Conference. No claim for compensation for any lost of membership or membership rights in the intervening period shall be entertained by the Executive Council.
 - (iv) The amount of any fine per member shall not exceed the total membership fees payable by a member in one year and the period of any debarment or suspension shall not exceed three years, unless any provision of these Rules expressly sanctions otherwise.
- (f)
 - (i) Apart from any suspension from any office or membership of the Union for the purpose and the duration of the disciplinary proceedings, no action shall be taken on any allegation or complaint against any member of the Union before a disciplinary inquiry on the allegation or complaint has been held and recommendation(s), if any, has thereby been made to the Executive Council for its decision.

- (ii) The committee duly constituted for conducting the disciplinary inquiry shall give or cause to be given to the member concerned reasonable notice of when he is required to appear before the committee.
 - (iii) Such member shall be entitled to appear either in person or in writing before the committee, to be heard thereat, to call witnesses, to cross-examine any witnesses called to testify against him and to submit to the committee any document or any other material as evidence refuting the allegation.
 - (iv) Any report of such disciplinary committee shall contain a summary of the proceedings before the committee.
 - (v) The Executive Council may request the member under the disciplinary inquiry to submit a further statement in writing in explanation or in refutation of the allegation proven against him before a decision is taken thereon by the Executive Council.
- (d) If the Union agrees with another trade union on the mutual transferability of membership and/or membership rights, a new member shall be entitled to have his membership and/or membership rights with such other trade union credited to him by this Union and a departing member shall be entitled to have this Union arrange for his membership and/or membership rights with this Union credited to him by such other trade union.

ARTICLE 6 Cessation of Membership and Associateship

- (a) Membership of this Union shall cease:-
- (i) for all members, upon their death;
 - (ii) for all members upon being struck off from the relevant List of Membership;
 - (iii) for all members upon their resignation, taking effect after due notice;
 - (iv) for all Founder or Cadre Members, upon the affirmation by the Secretary General of the NTUC of any expulsion by the Executive Council;
 - (v) for all Founder or Cadre Members upon the revocation of certification by;
 - (vi) for all Ordinary Members upon their expulsion by the Executive Council, subject to their right of appeal.
- (b) Associateship of this Union shall cease upon death, expulsion, arrears of subscriptions for three months or more, resignation after due notice and upon any ground the Executive Council deems fit in its absolute discretion.

- (c) The cessation of membership or associateship shall not prejudice the prior right of this Union to recover from a former member or associate any sum of money owing or any property belonging to this Union.

ARTICLE 7 Supreme Authority

- (a) The supreme authority of the Union shall be vested in a Delegates Conference.
- (b) In between Delegates Conference the Executive Council shall conduct the business and affairs of this Union.
- (c) If directed by a Delegates Conference as required by the National Trades Union Congress in accordance with the terms of affiliation of this Union thereto, the Executive Council shall delegate to any department or such body or bodies as the National Trades Union Congress may from time to time establish for the conduct of this Union's business and affairs pertaining to financial control and investment, industrial relations and recruitment of staff and members, applications for memberships, collection of membership subscriptions or any matters which, if implemented will contribute towards the attainment of the Union's object, and such body or bodies shall be deemed to be a committee or committees of the Executive Council for the purpose of exercising the relevant powers conferred by these rules on the Executive Council.
- (d) All acts done by any Delegates Conference or the Executive Council or any sub-committee thereof or by any person acting on behalf of the Delegates Conference or the Executive Council or any sub-committee thereof shall, notwithstanding the subsequent discovery of the Delegates Conference or the Executive Council or any sub-committee thereof having not been duly convened or constituted or of any defect in the proceedings thereof or in the appointment of the person so acting, be as valid and effectual for all purposes as if such irregularity or defect had not existed.

ARTICLE 8 Conferences

- (a) A Conference of Delegates may be Ordinary or Special.
- (b) A Conference of Delegates shall be made up of:-
 - (i) Delegates appointed by the Branch Committee, who shall be known as Branch Delegates; and
 - (ii) All Founder or Cadre Members who are not Branch Delegates.
- (c) (i) A member of the Executive Council who ceases to be a Founder or Cadre Member or Ordinary Member during his tenure of office in the Executive Council shall be deemed to vacate his office in the Executive Council and the Delegates Conference by reason of cessation of Membership.
 - (iii) An appointed member of the retiring Executive Council, other than the Executive Secretary, may attend but shall not speak or vote at Delegates Conference at which the new Executive Council is to be elected or to take office.

- (d) For the purpose of these rules, the expression “delegates” means all persons entitled to attend, speak and vote at a Delegates Conference, unless the context clearly does not permit.

ARTICLE 9 Representation

- (a) (i) All members of a Branch Committee elected in accordance with Rule 20(b) shall automatically be delegates of the Branch for the purpose of representing the Branch at a Delegates Conference.
- (ii) The names of all Branch delegates shall be registered with the General Secretary as soon as they are elected or appointed, but not later than one month before a Delegates Conference.
- (iii) Only Branch delegates whose names are registered with the General Secretary shall be entitled to attend, speak and vote as such at a Delegates Conference.
- (b) (i) An Ordinary Member, including a Founder or Cadre Member, is eligible for appointment as a delegate of the Branch to which he is attached at the date of appointment.
- (ii) A branch delegate, who after having been duly registered as a delegate is transferred to another branch of this Union, shall relinquish his delegateship.
- (iii) Delegateship shall cease with the cessation of Union membership from any cause whatsoever.
- (c) (i) Branch delegates shall hold office for a term of ordinarily four years up to the next election or appointment of branch delegates, subject to their sooner vacation of office from any cause.
- (ii) Branch delegates who are suspended from the membership of this Union from any cause whatsoever shall be deemed to vacate their office with effect from the commencement of the suspension of their membership.
- (iii) If any office of Branch delegates falls vacant, the Branch Committee concerned may appoint any of its eligible members to fill the vacancy for the remaining term of office.
- (d) The General Branch shall not be entitled to be represented by any delegates at the Delegates Conference.
- (e) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Constitution, no member shall be eligible to stand for election or be co-opted as a branch committee member, delegate or Executive Council member of the union if he or she has reached the statutory retirement age at the time of the election.

In addition, subject to paragraph 9 (e), any branch committee member, delegate or executive Council member who reaches the statutory retirement age at any time after the election but before the completion of his or her full term of office shall automatically cease to hold office. Such retired member can be appointed as an observer of the branch or the Executive Council at the discretion of the Executive Council.

ARTICLE 10 Ordinary Conference of Delegates

- (a) (i) An Ordinary Delegates Conference shall be held at least once in every four years but not later than six months after the close of every fourth financial year.
- (ii) The financial year shall be from 1st April to 31st March.
- (iii) The exact date, time and place of meeting shall be decided by the Executive Council.
- (b) A notice of the Ordinary Delegates Conference asking for motions for discussion at the Conference, motions for the amendment of Rules and nomination of office bearers of the Executive Council shall be sent to all delegates by the General Secretary not less than 28 days before the date fixed for the Ordinary Delegates Conference.
- (c) Motions for discussion, motions for amendment of these Rules and completed nomination papers shall be sent by their respective proposers and seconders together with, if applicable, the consent of the candidates, all of whom shall be delegates, to reach the General Secretary not later than 21 days before the date fixed for the Conference.
- (d) The General Secretary shall then prepare and forward to all delegates not less than 7 days before the date fixed for the Conference an agenda including:-
 - (i) Any motions for discussion;
 - (ii) Motions for amendment of Rules; and
 - (iii) List of candidates with their respective proposers and seconders for election to the Executive Council.
- (e) Fifty percent of the total number of delegates shall form a quorum at a Delegates Conference.
- (f) (i) If after half an hour from the time appointed for the commencement of the Conference a quorum is not present, the Conference shall be adjourned to a date not exceeding 10 days therefrom as may be decided by the delegates present.
- (ii) If at the adjourned Conference a quorum is not present after an hour from the time appointed for the commencement thereof, the delegates present shall have the power to proceed with the business of the Conference, but they shall not have the power to alter the Rules of the Union or to make any decision affecting the whole of the membership.

ARTICLE 11 Business of an Ordinary Delegates Conference

The business of an Ordinary Delegates Conference shall be in accordance with the agenda which shall include the consideration of reports by the Executive Council for the period under review and the election of the Executive Council.

801 to 1200	6

Branches with more than 1200 paid up members shall be entitled to one additional seat in the Executive Council for every 50 members in excess of 1200.

- (ii) The Chairman and Secretary of a branch shall be automatically appointed to the Executive Council except where a branch is entitled to only one seat, in which case the Chairman shall be appointed to the Executive Council. Where the Executive Secretary is a Branch Chairman or Secretary, such branch shall be entitled to nominate an additional person to the Executive Council. Each branch shall elect their additional Executive Council members by and from among the branch delegates before the Delegates Conference.

- (iii) The elected members of the Executive Council may at any time appoint not more than 3 persons who are either delegates of the union with not less than one year's standing or employees of the union with not less than one year's service to be non-elected members of the Executive Council. The term of office of an Executive Council Member who is appointed hereof shall be the same as that of the Executive Council elected at the Delegates Conference. An appointed member of the Executive Council shall have the same rights and duties as elected members of the Executive Council but shall cease to be members of the Executive Council immediately upon cessation of membership or employment with the union.
- (iv) One Executive Secretary to be appointed by the Executive Council from among the members of the union or such other persons, provided that the appointee has been certified by the Secretary General of NTUC to be a fit and proper person for appointment as an Executive Secretary. If the person who is appointed as the Executive Secretary of the union is also concurrently holding the position of the branch chairman or the branch secretary, the said branch shall be entitled to appoint another office bearer to sit in the Executive Council pursuant to Article 13(a)(i).
- (b)
 - (i) All members of the Executive Council shall ordinarily hold office for a period not exceeding four years and six months.
 - (ii) An Executive Council Member of the union whose branch is dissolved or closed for any reasons whatsoever shall automatically cease to be a member of the Executive Council. Provided that this provision shall not apply to the posts of office bearers of the Union who shall continue to serve out their term of office on the Executive Council notwithstanding the dissolution or closure of their branches.
- (c) The members of the Executive Council shall from among themselves vote for one President, one Vice- President, one General Secretary and one Treasurer.
- (d) The Executive Council Members may from time to time and at any time appoint from among themselves such other office-bearers with such designations, powers and functions as they may deem fit without derogating in any manner from the designations, powers and functions of the office-bearers specified in paragraph (c) hereof except and unless with their consent.
- (e) Members of the Executive Council, whether elected or appointed, who do not hold any specific office in the Executive Council shall be known as Executive Council Members.
- (f) All retiring Executive Council Members are eligible for re-election unless they are otherwise disqualified.
- (g) The Executive Secretary shall hold office until he is removed from office by the Executive Council with the prior approval of the Secretary General of the NTUC or he ceases to be certified by the Secretary General of NTUC as a fit and proper person for the appointment or he vacates office from any other cause. The Executive Secretary shall cease to be an appointed member of the Executive Council upon ceasing to be an Executive Secretary of the Union.

- (h) The Executive Council shall have the power and absolute discretion to determine the basis of representation of the various branches on the Executive Council at any time before the election of the Executive Council.
- (i) The Executive Council shall be empowered to make such rules and regulations as are necessary for conduct of the Branch Elections and shall through the General Secretary supervise such elections.
- (j) Notwithstanding the provision of this or any other Rules, no Ordinary (General) Member shall hold office in the Executive Council.
- (k)
 - (i) The Executive Council shall meet at least once a month, and more than one-half of the total number of the Executive Council Members shall form a quorum. The Executive Council may decide on any matter by circular resolution duly signed either on single or separate sheets of paper by all Executive Council Members in Singapore.
 - (ii) Notice of every ordinary meeting of the Executive Council together with the agenda therefore shall be given not later than one week in advance to all Executive Council Members.
 - (iii) Notice for any other meeting of the Executive Council together with the agenda therefore shall be given not later than three days in advance thereof; provided that in the event of an emergency meeting immediate notice may be given without any agenda therefore.
- (l)
 - (i) Any Executive Council Member absenting himself without prior excuse from three consecutive meetings shall be disqualified from sitting as a member and holding any additional office in the Executive Council after such third meeting unless an explanation in writing has been forward to and accepted as satisfactory by the Executive Council.
 - (ii) Any Executive Council Member who fails to be present at any meeting of the Executive Council within half an hour or its scheduled time of commencement without an excuse acceptable to the Chairman or who leaves the meeting before the close thereof without the permission of the Chairman shall be deemed to have absented himself from that meeting without any excuse or reason satisfactory or acceptable to the Executive Council if such meeting fails to be convened or has to be adjourned soon thereafter, as the case maybe, solely by reason of insufficient quorum.
 - (iii) Any Executive Council Member who is absent from three or more meetings thereof at any time during his term of office without prior permission or satisfactory or acceptable excuse or reason shall be liable to be suspended or removed from the Executive Council and any additional office therein and to be otherwise disciplined as the remaining Executive Council Members may decide in their absolute discretion.
- (m)
 - (i) If a vacancy arises in the Executive Council, the Executive Council may, subject to Rule 13(a), appoint any delegate to fill the vacancy until the election of the Executive Council.
 - (ii) An appointed member of the Executive Council shall not be deemed to assume any specific post held by the member he replaces, unless the Executive Council agrees.

- (iii) If the appointee to a vacant seat is not given the office held by the vacating member, the Executive Council shall elect from among themselves a successor to the specific office of the vacating member.
- (iv) If the appointee to a vacant seat is not given the office held by the vacating member, the Executive Council shall elect from among themselves a successor to the specific office of the vacating member.

ARTICLE 14 Powers of the Executive Council

- (a) In conducting the business and affairs of the Union, the Executive Council shall have power to do whatever is necessary to attain the objects of the Union and to protect the funds of the Union against wastage, extravagance or misappropriation.
