

COMRADE OF LABOUR

Rahimah Abdullah

Executive Committee Member
Singapore Industrial & Services Employees' Union

Nominated by the Singapore Industrial & Services Employees' Union

Rahimah Abdullah began her career in Keppel Logistics Pte Ltd in 2010 as a shipping coordinator. She is a passionate unionist who has served her members with patience and dedication since 2012,

Over the years, she has engaged her members through various platforms and has built a strong rapport with them. She is known for her approachable and helpful nature.

Her ability to relate to their concerns and resolve them quickly allows issues to be settled at the lowest level.

She has championed many membership recruitment efforts, helping to raise awareness about union membership within the company.

As a unionist, Sister Rahimah has actively engaged the management to build positive labour-management relations, earning her the respect of both her members and management.

She is a strong advocate for continuous upgrading. In 2018, she obtained a diploma in leadership and people management.

As the branch chairperson of Geodis Logistics Singapore Pte Ltd, Sister Rahimah played a critical role in the transition from Keppel Logistics Pte Ltd to Geodis Logistics Singapore Pte Ltd in 2022.

She works closely with the management to ensure the welfare of workers is protected, and she continued to positively engage with the new management.

As one of the members in the SISEU's executive committee, she provides sound advice and guidance when it comes to membership outreach and sporting activities.
