

ntuc
MAY DAY
AWARDS
2 0 2 5

COMRADE OF LABOUR

Joseph Goh Say Sing

General Secretary

National Private Hire Vehicles Association (NPHVA)

Nominated by the National Private Hire Vehicles Association

Joseph Goh Say Sing's dedication, leadership and commitment to advancing the interests of private hire drivers and platform workers have been exemplary.

In addition to his role as National Private Hire Vehicles Association (NPHVA) General Secretary, Brother Joseph serves on several other committees. As Co-Chairperson of the Land Connectivity Cluster (LCC), he actively participates in meetings to stay informed about industry developments, enabling him to provide support in advancing the point-to-point transport sector. His commitment to understanding global advancements spurred him to follow the LCC to Batam for industrial discussions and join NTUC on a learning journey to Shenzhen to better understand challenges posed by disruptive technologies.

As NPHVA's representative at the point-to-point tripartite meetings with the Ministry of Transport, Land Transport Authority, and platform operators, Brother Joseph advocated for the welfare of private hire drivers. Leveraging his extensive knowledge and experience, he has raised critical concerns about upcoming industry policies and developments. His tireless lobbying for sustainable earnings and improved welfare has led to meaningful discussions and impactful initiatives.

In his role as NPHVA's representative for the Tripartite Workgroup on Representation for Platform Workers, Brother Joseph has been at the forefront of advocating for fair representation since 2021. His unwavering commitment to championing their rights and effectively engaging with tripartite partners underscores his deep passion for empowering the community he serves. Additionally, Brother Joseph has served as a key leader in the Platform Workers Association Taskforce. His ground-level insights and practical suggestions were instrumental in shaping the changes related to CPF contributions, standardised work injury compensation, and collective bargaining. He works tirelessly to raise awareness of these initiatives to platform workers.