VETERAN OF LABOUR

Mohamed Fauzi Salim Talib

Mentor

Singapore Union of Broadcasting Employees

Nominated by the Singapore Union of Broadcasting Employees

Mohamed Fauzi Salim Talib is a distinguished veteran at Mediacorp and the Singapore Union of Broadcasting Employees (SUBE), with an impressive career spanning over 43 years. He has served Mediacorp in various roles and is currently employed as an Assistant Manager in Media Management. Even after his retirement, Brother Fauzi continues to contribute significantly, having been re-employed for over six years due to his exceptional expertise in retrieving archival footage and his deep knowledge of past government and national information systems.

In his early years with the union, Brother Fauzi was an active and respected leader, serving as a key Executive Committee member who shaped the union's direction. Known for his jovial nature, he adeptly handles serious negotiations with a friendly demeanour, ensuring that issues are effectively addressed. From July 2004 to 2007, he stepped down from the role of First Assistant Secretary, smoothly transitioning into a treasured mentor within SUBE. As a mentor, he guides and encourages younger leaders to actively engage in union work and supports various union activities.

With his extensive experience and network within Mediacorp, Brother Fauzi continues to add immense value to SUBE as a Council of Seniors member. Even in 'retirement', his wisdom and insights remain invaluable, offering a historical perspective on union practices and strategies that may have been overlooked over time. His contributions during Executive Committee meetings help guide the union, ensuring that past experiences are leveraged to strengthen SUBE's current and future initiatives.
