HOW YOU CAN SEEK HELP AS A UNION MEMBER

Union members in unionised companies

UWEEI collectively negotiates for union members on their employment terms

e.g. bonus, salary increment, retrenchment benefits

Support and guide aggrieved members through various avenues:

Assisting employees in disputes with their company

File claims with

File claims with

Tripartite Alliance for Dispute Management

Union members are able to claim up to $30,000

UWEEI may also assist individual PMEs for

- Unfair dismissal
- Retrenchment benefits
- Victimisation issues
- Breaches of employment contracts
- Re-employment disputes

Employee who is in a non-unionised company

An employee who is not in a unionised company will not be eligible for benefits beyond legal requirements (e.g. for things not stated in employment contract, retrenchment benefits).

Non-union members facing either a wrongful dismissal or salary dispute would have to file a mediation request with the Tripartite Alliance for Dispute Management (TADM) and attend mediation first.

If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute, they can then refer the matter to the Employment Claims Tribunal (ECT).
