NTUC Club Management Council

Nominated by NTUC Club

Edwin Ng has been an invaluable and dedicated member of NTUC Club's Management Council since 2020. With a wealth of knowledge and experience, he consistently commits his time and effort to guide the Club in its growth and transformation.

Brother Edwin has played a crucial role in shaping the Club's direction, aligning it with the broader goals of the Labour Movement. He has led the Club in pivoting towards sustainable engagement models that positively impact members' social well-being. His expertise in new technology has enabled the Club to navigate the complexities of the digital age and establish a robust cybersecurity framework, fostering a culture of innovation.

As a member of the Club's Finance and Strategy Committee, Brother Edwin provides valuable financial advice to refine strategic plans and emphasises the importance of the Environmental, Social, and Governance framework for sustainable business practices. His recent appointment as Chairman of the Audit Committee underscores his commitment to upholding corporate governance and strengthening risk management.

Beyond his professional contributions, Brother Edwin's charismatic and approachable nature has earned him the respect of council members and stakeholders alike.
