COMRADE OF LABOUR

Abdul Lathiff Mohamed Rafi

General Treasurer

National Transport Workers' Union (NTWU)

Nominated by the National Transport Workers' Union

Abdul Lathiff Mohamed Rafi is a union leader whose steadfast determination has significantly impacted worker welfare. Elected as a union leader in 2013 and to the Executive Committee in 2017, he has demonstrated exceptional leadership in advocating for workers' interests. Despite his humble demeanour, Brother Lathiff skillfully balances the needs of employees with management's financial realities, facilitating constructive dialogue and ensuring workers' voices are heard. His efforts have improved wages while maintaining a harmonious relationship with the company.

As National Transport Workers' Union (NTWU) Canteen Sub-Committee Chairperson, he oversees 48 canteens, ensuring affordable food and beverage options for public transport workers. His hands-on approach allows him to address any issues promptly, ensuring smooth canteen operations. Additionally, as an NTUC Land Connectivity Cluster member,

Brother Lathiff provides valuable insights on industry matters, further supporting the long-term welfare of workers. Brother Lathiff actively encourages his colleagues to pursue training opportunities and take on additional responsibilities, helping them broaden their skill sets. He is always the first to volunteer for new training initiatives, providing insights to management for refinement before roll-out. He ensures that the benefits of productivity improvements are shared fairly while ensuring workers are not overburdened.

In all his roles, Brother Lathiff exemplifies dedication as a union leader, advocating for fair treatment, equipping workers for the future, and enhancing wages and welfare. His leadership continues to inspire many and strengthen the Labour Movement's mission of empowering workers.
