

MODEL WORKER

Shanjei Krishnan Nair

Senior Sales Associate

Ikano Pte Ltd

Nominated by the Building Construction And Timber Industries Employees' Union

Shanjei Krishnan Nair actively promotes union membership at his workplace and the benefits of being a member to his peers, and he regularly recruits new members. Workers with issues seek him for advice and assistance. Brother Shanjei endeavours to advise them appropriately, resolve the issue, and bring it up to the union for assistance if necessary.

He took up various training to upskill himself to be a qualified safety officer. He is also a Company Emergency Response Team (CERT) leader and instructor at the workplace. He has a background in fire safety training having served the Singapore Civil Defence Force for more than 10 years, and when the company sent him for crisis and emergency response training. Now he oversees the various CERT teams at the workplace and provides training to them.

As a dedicated worker who takes pride in his work, Brother Shanjei was also recognised and awarded by his company the Gold Excellent Service Award for serving his customers professionally. Brother Shanjei was one of the few selected by Ikano to undergo a 12-month training programme on various areas of the company operations. He also coaches and guides new hires in his department because of his knowledge, experience and positive attitude toward sharing knowledge and desire to improve the workplace.