COMRADE OF LABOUR

Annie Lee

Assistant General Secretary
Attractions, Resorts & Entertainment Union (AREU)

Nominated by the Attractions, Resorts & Entertainment Union

As Secretary of the NTUC Club Branch Committee, Annie Lee actively engages in discussions with the company regarding changes in worker compensation. Even amidst the uncertainty of the COVID-19 pandemic, she ensured continuous dialogue about bonus payments. Her unwavering commitment led to fair compensation for workers once the business outlook stabilised.

Sister Annie is a proactive leader who addresses workers' concerns and effectively represents their interests with management. She plays a pivotal role in recruiting new members, engaging them about the union, and fostering a sense of community. As Assistant General Secretary and Committee Member of NTUC U Women and Family (WAF), she has advanced Labour Movement and Attractions, Resorts & Entertainment Union (AREU) initiatives. A passionate advocate for women workers, Sister Annie actively participates in outreach initiatives under the NTUC Women's Committee, including International Women's Month celebrations and the creation of WAF's "Bright, Brave, and Bold" production.

Beyond these initiatives, she shares insights with the Executive Committee on ways to benefit AREU members, promoting discussions on flexible work arrangements and championing the Better Workplace initiative within her branch.

During the company's business reviews over the past few years, which led to changes in job roles, Sister Annie has been a vital leader. She provides insightful feedback on challenges and skills gaps faced by members, particularly mature workers, collaborating closely with the Company to plan necessary interventions. Her leadership and teamwork ensure that workers are equipped with the skills needed for employability in a rapidly changing work environment.
