

PARTNER OF LABOUR MOVEMENT

Lim Kuo Siong

General Secretary
Tech Talent Assembly

Nominated by the Tech Talent Assembly

Lim Kuo Siong is a forward-looking and strong partner of the Labour Movement in advancing the interests of the tech professionals in Singapore. He recognised the importance of a collective voice for tech professionals. He was among the first to volunteer to set up Tech Talent Assembly (TTAB) to promote continuous life-long learning for ICT professionals.

Brother Kuo Siong also spearheaded the TTAB Career Conversation (TCC) programme. Members can embark on a one-to-one conversation platform with ICT industry leaders on technological trends and seek career advice. He sought out experienced leaders in the tech industry to come on board to provide TTAB members mentorship via this programme. He has conducted numerous sessions and has provided key insights to his mentees on their career goals. The TCC is well-received and has helped many ICT professionals over the last three years.

In 2020 and 2023, he participated actively in the research study on 'Jobs and Skills for ICT professionals'. As a well-respected knowledge expert in the tech industry, Brother Kuo Siong has invited companies and senior management to participate in this research study and ensured the results' authenticity and response to the fast-changing demands of tech skills. As the association's general secretary, Brother Kuo Siong provided strategic guidance to ensure its members could access required assistance to help them with their career goals.
