

MERITORIOUS SERVICE

Kung Teong Wah

Director, Board of Directors

NTUC's e2i (Employment and Employability Institute)

Nominated by the National Trades Union Congress. Supported by the Singapore Labour Foundation.

Since 2014, Kung Teong Wah has served on the Board of Directors at NTUC's e2i (Employment and Employability Institute). As a board director, he has played a key role in NTUC's e2i's transformation and the expansion of programme offerings and services to benefit different workforce segments. As Chairperson of NTUC's e2i's Nominating Committee, he reviewed and assessed NTUC's e2i's board composition and directors' contributions to ensure NTUC's e2i's continued relevance amid the changing employment landscape.

Brother Teong Wah advocates strong labour relations, skills upgrading, and the development of our local talents. This has been demonstrated by his continued support of NTUC's e2i initiatives, such as strong support for job redesign and skills upgrading through NTUC's Company Training Committee (CTC) Grant.

Drawing on his vast knowledge and industry expertise, he advocates the importance of NTUC's e2i training programmes, which benefit workers in terms of wages, welfare, and work prospects. He frequently shares on workplace innovation and how to raise productivity, including engaging employers at NTUC's e2i outreach events—above and beyond his regular duties as a board director.

As a valued partner of NTUC's e2i, Brother Teong Wah has provided invaluable insights to the NTUC's e2i Board, helping steer it to greater heights.
