PARTNER OF LABOUR MOVEMENT

Sumun Biswas

Hydraulic Excavator Operator
Hin Lee Contractor Pte Ltd

Nominated by the Migrant Workers' Centre.

Sumun Biswas has been volunteering with the Migrant Worker Centre (MWC) as an ambassador since 2011.

He has always been one of the first to support MWC's initiatives and programmes. A strong believer that migrant workers in Singapore must be cared for, he actively shares his positive experiences with fellow workers about the MWC, as well as offering advice and support to those with concerns.

Brother Sumun actively listens to his peers and connects them with MWC officers for further assistance as and when needed. He even dedicates much of his spare time to support the setup of MWC membership booths for recruitment events, as well as to volunteer as an ambassador.

A strong advocate for both the membership and ambassador programmes, he and has actively contributed to MWC's recruitment efforts. During events, he enthusiastically engages with his peers by providing information on the benefits of MWC membership and the ambassador programme.

Brother Sumun is not one to discriminate, and he is attentive to the well-being of all migrant workers, regardless of their nationalities. Always eager to learn and share his knowledge, he advises his peers by raising awareness on scams and other important topics.
