

MODEL WORKER

Mohammad Fairul Ahmad Suliman

Executive (Records Management & Admin)

Singapore Courts

Nominated by the Amalgamated Union of Public Employees.

Mohammad Fairul Ahmad Suliman began his journey as an Operations Support Officer (Grade IV) with Singapore Courts in 2006. Since then, he has demonstrated unwavering commitment, covering duties ranging from Court Orderly to front counter tasks. His positive attitude and excellent work contributions led to his promotion to OSO Grade III in 2011.

Driven to expand his horizons and create a better life for his family, Brother Fairul embarked on the NITEC Business Services course in 2015, supported by his management. Despite encountering an English language obstacle, he persevered. After two attempts, he completed the Workplace Literacy and Numeracy Assessment and graduated from the 18-month NITEC programme in 2016. His determination inspired colleagues, some of whom also pursued upskilling. Management recognised his efforts and performance, promoting him to OSO Grade II in 2016. Confident in his prospects, Brother Fairul converted to the MX scheme in 2019 at MX16 grade.

In 2021, fuelled by a desire for new challenges, Brother Fairul successfully sought a transfer to the Family Justice Courts and was appointed as an Executive (Records Management & Admin). He excelled in this role, earning a promotion to MX15 in 2022.

Brother Fairul's journey exemplifies resilience, dedication, and a continuous learning attitude. It stands as an inspiring testament to the power of self-improvement, perseverance, and the support of a dedicated team.
