MODEL WORKER

Jason Tan Yong An

Operations Manager
Emp-Tech Security Pte Ltd

Nominated by the Union of Security Employees

Jason Tan Yong An has been a dedicated union leader for the past three years, bringing over 13 years of experience in the security industry. Rising through the ranks, Brother Jason has demonstrated a strong commitment to empowering lower-wage workers and helping them realise their potential. He focuses on transforming worksites by leveraging technology, particularly through Union of Security Employees' (USE) Company Training Committee application, which enhances operational efficiency and improves the way security officers perform their tasks. His efforts have not only streamlined workflows but also contributed to wage increases for officers.

As a Branch Official, Brother Jason actively addresses concerns raised on social media, promptly escalating issues to the relevant Industrial Relations Officers (IROs). He also identifies promotions and activities that benefit security officers, recommending them to USE to enhance member engagement. His dedication to professionalism and passion for improving the lives of security officers exemplify USE's core values.
