MODEL WORKER

Raymond Sim

Operations Manager
Security & Risk Solutions Pte Ltd

Nominated by the Union of Security Employees

With over 30 years of experience in secured transport logistics, Raymond Sim has been an exemplary leader and dedicated union member. As Operations Manager at SRS for the past four years, he oversees logistics solutions, operations support, and employee welfare, ensuring the well-being of his team. A firm believer in lifelong learning, Brother Raymond recently pursued training for a Police Licensing & Regulatory Department (PLRD) Security Officer licence, despite it not being a requirement for his role. This initiative reflects his commitment to personal growth and his desire to better support his company and colleagues.

As a Branch Official for the past two years, Brother Raymond has faithfully attended union training courses, equipping himself to assist members with workplace issues. He actively seeks to understand the challenges faced by security officers, striving to improve their well-being and create a more enjoyable workplace. His proactive approach, dedication to union activities, and ability to balance his responsibilities have earned him high regard within his company.
