KYLE

Kyle Ong is a filmmaker and podcaster based in Singapore.

A graduate from LASALLE College of the Arts, Kyle has spent the past 10 years honing his craft, producing film, video, photo, and podcast content for a diverse range of clients.

His unique perspective and versatility have earned him a reputation as a Creative Swiss Knife, able to handle any challenge and deliver exceptional results.

In 2017, Kyle made his TV directorial debut with #NoFilter, a program in Discovery Channel's Jump Cut Asia series. Since then, Kyle has continued to build his portfolio, directing a range of projects, including a TV documentary series about Singapore's Paralympic team for the Tokyo 2020 games.

Kyle's passion for storytelling extends beyond the screen. He is the Executive Producer and Co-Creator of one of Southeast Asia's most popular English Horror Podcasts, GHOST MAPS, with over 2.5 million downloads.
