

MERITORIOUS SERVICE

Ng Chee Yuen

Chairman, Board of Directors
NTUC First Campus Co-operative Limited

Nominated by the National Trades Union Congress. Supported by NTUC Enterprise.

Ng Chee Yuen has been an independent director of the NTUC First Campus Co-operative Limited board (now known as NTUC First Campus Limited) since September 2011 and was appointed board Chairman in August 2020.

He chaired the Audit and Risk Committee from July 2016 to August 2020 and served as a member of the Establishment Committee from June 2013 to June 2014. He was also appointed NTUC First Campus Establishment Committee Chairman, effective October 2023. At present, he is a director on the Board of NTUC Health Co-operative Limited, a position he has held since 2020, and he has also been the Chairman of the Human Resource Committee since 2022.

Brother Chee Yuen helped steer the organisation towards continuous upscaling, ensuring Singapore families have access to quality preschool education and childcare services. Today, NTUC First Campus has more than 170 centres across Singapore, serving more than 25,000 children and their families.

Under his leadership, NTUC First Campus is a people-first company, prioritising its people's well-being and growth. It implements a holistic Total Rewards system and continues to invest in training. HR Asia has consistently recognised the company as one of the best companies in Asia to work for.
