

PARTNER OF LABOUR MOVEMENT

Tan Yeow Chin

Assistant Vice-President

PSA Corporation Ltd

Nominated by the Singapore Port Workers Union.

Tan Yeow Chin leads the Migrant Workers Management Department, overseeing the welfare of the foreign workforce and envisioning a welcoming environment for them. He actively promoted integration and initiated Residence Day to foster closer connections among migrant workers, organising treats such as ice cream distribution with the Unions.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, he demonstrated exceptional leadership by ensuring the continuity of port operations while prioritising the well-being of foreign colleagues. Collaborating with the Unions, he addressed concerns such as ensuring balanced nutrition for the foreign workforce by supplementing them with fresh fruits. He secured proper living conditions and healthcare support through stakeholder engagement with entities such as the Ministry of Manpower, the Ministry of Health, the Singapore Land Authority, and foreign embassies. Brother Yeow Chin coordinated the setup of isolation areas and swabbing centres and facilitated access to recreation centres when movement was restricted. Brother Yeow Chin and his team diligently enforced Safe Management Measures and facilitated vaccination for all workers. Despite challenges, he maintained morale within PSA Corporation Ltd and garnered support for migrant workers, showcasing remarkable dedication and compassion.

Brother Yeow Chin also advocates lifelong learning, encouraging workers to use schemes like NTUC's Union Training Assistance Programme to enhance their skills and advance their careers.
