

ntuc

MAY DAY

AWARDS

2 0 2 5

MODEL WORKER

Norma Sahamed

Senior Building Coordinator
Singland Management Services Pte Ltd

Nominated by the Singapore Industrial & Services Employees' Union

With an outstanding 31 years of unwavering service, Norma Sahamed has proven herself to be a resilient, dedicated, and highly adaptable team member. Her career has been marked by a remarkable ability to navigate and thrive through significant organisational changes, including recent company takeovers. These transitions demanded considerable adjustments in work practices and technological advancements, yet Norma has consistently risen to the challenge with exceptional adaptability.

Sister Norma's commitment to professional growth is exemplary. She has diligently mastered new systems integral to her role and pursued further education, including courses in Occupational Health and Safety (OHS) and security surveillance management. Her proactive approach to continuous learning ensures she remains at the forefront of industry developments, enabling her to contribute meaningfully to her team and organisation.

A true role model, Sister Norma embodies the qualities of a Model Worker. Her dedication, forward-thinking mindset, and inspiring work ethic set a benchmark for her peers. Sister Norma is a shining example of commitment, proactivity, and inspiration.