

ntuc

MAY DAY

AWARDS

2 0 2 5

PARTNER OF LABOUR MOVEMENT

Naw Li Thae

Migrant Domestic Worker

Nominated by the Centre for Domestic Employees.

Naw Li Thae was a resident at the Centre for Domestic Employees (CDE) shelter following a difficult employment incident. With support from her case officer, she found a compassionate new employer and now dedicates herself to helping fellow migrant domestic workers (MDWs).

As a volunteer leader, she exemplifies integrity and commitment through her outreach efforts. She patiently guides new volunteers, helping them integrate into their roles.

Sister Li Thae's reliability and approachable nature have earned her the trust of her peers, inspiring them to extend their outreach to other MDWs with care.

Her own experiences have allowed her to connect empathetically with MDWs facing similar challenges. She provides practical guidance based on her journey and collaborates closely with CDE case officers for more complex cases. Her dedication not only benefits individuals but also strengthens the community among MDWs.

An avid learner, Sister Li Thae is committed to self-improvement and has pursued courses in digital literacy and basic Mandarin. Her dedication to learning has not only enhanced her skills but also strengthened her role as a resourceful and adaptable leader within the MDW community.

With her new skills acquired, she has not only benefited the family that she is working for, but also motivated others to pursue lifelong learning.