

MODEL WORKER

Nur Atiqah Ismail

Lead Admin Executive
ISS M&E Pte Ltd

Nominated by the Building Construction And Timber Industries Employees' Union

Despite the busy lifestyle of being mother of two children, Nur Atiqah Ismail has never given up a chance to upskill and sharpen her capabilities. Through her keen interest in HR, she has completed various courses such as Specialist Diploma in Enhance HR Skills, Diploma in Business Administration Specialising in Human Resource, Certificate in HR Practice from Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development, Basic Course in Industrial Relations (BCIR) and the Union Leadership Programme for Women Leaders.

Sister Atiqah started her career as an admin clerk and rose through the ranks to become lead admin executive in ISS M&E Pte Ltd today. Her training has helped hone her strong organisational behavioural skills and technical abilities to lead a team of support staff in achieving the operational readiness of her company.

Besides her day job, Sister Atiqah is also the branch chairperson for BATU-ISS Branch and an internal auditor for the Building Construction And Timber Industries Employees' Union (BATU) executive committee.

Her training under the Union Leadership Programme for Women Leaders has prepared her to take on a more significant role BATU. The training encouraged and further spurred her desire to be upskilled and inspire her peers.
